COURSE FORMAT

* This course is offered in an 16-week time frame with no face-to-face class meetings. You must be self-directed and self-motivated to succeed in this course. Please note that this is not a self-paced course, the class schedule is strictly followed. You must also make a commitment to check in to the course website on Lamaku DAILY. The Textbook for this class will be (TXT0) which the cost will be cost nothing to the student.

CATALOG DESCRIPTION

SP 151 introduces students to the basic principles of human communication. Students will receive practice in improving their competency in the areas of public speaking, specifically in informative and persuasive speaking. Prerequisite-placement in English 21 or higher.

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

Upon completion of SP 151, students should be able to:

1. Describe the principles and processes of human communication.
2. Compare and contrast differences between interpersonal, intrapersonal, and public speaking.
3. Demonstrate and evaluate effective verbal and nonverbal communication.
4. Appropriately adapt communicative messages to the self and others.
5. Demonstrate effective listening skills

To provide flexibility to adapt to needs or circumstances, the instructor reserves the right to deviate from the course outcomes, to add or omit tasks, and to adjust grades or points as the circumstances of the situation justify.

REQUIRED COURSE TEXTS AND MATERIALS

1. Course Text. http://open.lib.umn.edu/communication/

2. Video Sharing Website. Speech videos will be uploaded to Google Drive.

3. Lamaku (https://Lamaku.hawaii.edu). For this course, you are required to log in to the course website on Lamaku EVERYDAY. Being too busy with other classes or work, going out of town, or simply neglecting to log in is not an acceptable excuse for not checking Lamaku everyday. You will also be required to download course materials regularly from Lamaku. You can log in using your MyUH Portal username and password.

4. Digital recorder. A digital camera with video-recording capacity OR camcorder will be required to complete the major speaking assignments in this course. There are three major presentations in the course which will need to be video-recorded and uploaded to Google Drive. The quality of the recording must be clear enough that the instructor can clearly see the speaker's facial expressions as well as the full head to fingertip view of the speaker's body. The recordings will be used as a learning tool for you as well as your instructor and peers to view and evaluate your presentations. If you do not own a digital camera with video recording capabilities or a camcorder that enables clear audio/video output of your presentation, you might explore the option of borrowing one from a family member or friend.

The Oral Communication (OC) focus at Windward Community College applies to 200-level courses (and 100-level courses in Speech).

O1.

Each student will conduct or participate in a minimum of three oral communication assignments or a comparable amount of oral communication activity during the class. In addition, at least 40% of the final grade for a 3-credit course will be a function of the student's oral communication activities.

Types of presentations:

- Individual creative and aesthetic performances (e.g., storytelling, performance of literature, interpretations and readings)
- Group presentations
- Facilitating and participating in group discussions and community gatherings
- Individual presentations and speeches—formal and informal
- Panel discussions
- Engaging in outreach activities that incorporate oral communication skills (e.g., community teaching,coaching, presenting)
- Various forms of interviews/interrogations
- Press conference
- Various persuasion and influence appeals (e.g., sales presentations, solicitations, motivationalpresentations)
- Argumentation and Debates (individual and team)
- Oral critiques of and responses to others' performance and presentations

O2.

Each student will receive explicit training, in the context of the class, in oral communication concerns relevant to the assignment or activity.

Explicit training for students can include:

- Choosing appropriate topics for the occasion, purpose, and audience
- Analyzing and adapting to audiences to become "audience-centered" using extemporaneous speaking

- Researching credible sources and choosing relevant information to add to the presentations
- Organizing information using the appropriate format for the occasion
- Developing strong thesis statements
- Using language appropriately and effectively
- Using visual aids effectively and efficiently
- Improving verbal and nonverbal delivery (e.g. eye contact, gestures, body movement, vocal inflections, etc)
- Actively listening to content and organization versus passively listening
- Listening critically and providing constructive feedback
- Using information to influence the speaker, audience and the situation to the communication process

O3.

Each student will receive specific feedback, critiquing, and grading of the oral communication assignments or activities from the instructor.

Feedback, critique, and grading can be provided in the following areas:

- Organization and Content
    - Introduction: Gains audience's attention, introduces topic and thesis clearly, establishes credibility and relevancy to audience, creates common ground, and preview main ideas clearly
    - Body: Ideas are logically organized according to the order of main points taken from the thesis, main ideas are consistent in thought with clear transitions, time is devoted equally to each main point
    - Conclusion: Main points are summarized, a memorable close is included, and an action step is proposed depending on the occasion
    - Supporting Material: Each main point is supported with credible sources, supporting material creates visual imagery, is diverse, and developed thoroughly and consistently
- Delivery

    - Visual Aid(s): Clearly visible and legible, contains appropriate amount of content, enhances audience's comprehension and presented with a purpose
    - Language (Verbal Delivery): Uses appropriate level of language, language is used according to occasion and context, uses correct pronunciation, elaborates on ideas, avoids biased language, uses appropriate volume, effective speaking rate, articulate, uses vocal variation, minimizes verbal fillers
    - Physical (Nonverbal Delivery): Maintains consistent eye contact with audience, extemporaneous, uses effective and purposeful gestures and movement, appropriate posture and body orientation, dynamic, conversational, professional appearance, reduce anxiety and apprehension, include nonverbal gestures to support the verbal message
- Topic Choice
    - Topic is relevant and relatable to the audience

O4.

If instructor feedback primarily involves individual or paired students, enrollment will be limited to 25 students and 20 students for WI courses.

Student Contributions

Participation Verification: Campuses are required by federal regulations to verify the participation of students in their classes. In accordance with Executive Policy 7.209, all students in the University of Hawai'i system are required to establish "participation" to ensure that they are not dropped from their class(es). Students who fail to participate by the late registration period for a class will be administratively dropped from that class. Students may also be dropped from dependent prerequisite and/or corequisite classes if both courses do not establish participation.

COMPUTER REQUIREMENTS

This course will be conducted online and will require the following: (1) Basic computing skills and knowledge (2) Basic knowledge of uploading and downloading files (including video files) from the internet (3) Internet connection (4) Java capable web browser (such as Internet Explorer or Firefox) (5) Windows Operating System, Macintosh OS, or Linux operating system Word Processing Program (Microsoft Word/Works or Open Office Writer) (6) Adobe Acrobat Reader, and (7) UH E-mail Account.

*All e-mails will be sent to your UH e-mail account. Be sure that you know how to access your UH e-mail account and CHECK YOUR ACCOUNT DAILY. E-mail sent to the instructor should be sent to:Jkim5@hawaii.edu

COURSE POLICIES

OFFICIAL USE OF E-MAIL (EXECUTIVE POLICY E2.213)

The Office of the Vice President of Student Affairs has recently instated a policy wherein: "Students are responsible for checking their email account frequently and consistently to remain current with University communications. They are expected to monitor and manage their email storage quota to insure that their mailboxes are not saturated and are able to receive new messages." Hence, for the purposes of this course, you are required to check your e-mail EVERY DAY to keep up to date on important correspondence related to the course. A copy of the policy can be viewed online at:
http://www.hawaii.edu/svpa/ep/e2/e2213.pdf

Academic Integrity: Work submitted by a student must be the student's own work. The work of others should be explicitly marked, such as through use of quotes or summarizing with reference to the original author. In this class, students who commit academic dishonesty, cheating or plagiarism will have the following consequence(s): Students will receive a failing grade for plagiarized assignments. All cases of academic dishonesty are referred to the Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs.

Windward CC Student Conduct Information

UH System Student Conduct Policy EO 7.208

AI: Writing, analytical, creativity, and critical thinking skills are essential to the learning environment of this course and all assignments should be prepared by the student. Therefore, AI-generated assignments are viewed as unethical and will receive a failing grade. This course assumes that all work submitted by students will be generated by the students themselves. If students need assistance with structuring an assignment, the professor is available and willing to support the student. Resources such as the Writing and Speech Lab are also available for the student to submit a credible assignment.

COLLEGE POLICIES & SUPPORT SERVICES

Disabilities Accommodations Statement

The Windward Community College's Disability Student Services Office (WCC-DSSO) is committed to providing equal access to qualified students with disabilities.

If you have a physical, sensory, health, cognitive, or mental health disability that could limit your ability to participate fully in this class, you are encouraged to contact the Disability Specialist Counselor, Roy Inouye, to discuss reasonable accommodations that will help you succeed in this class. The Disabilities Counselor can be reached at 808-235-7448, wccdsso@hawaii.edu, or stop by the office (Hale Kako'o 106) for more information.

TRIO PROGRAM

The Federal TRiO Programs are educational opportunity outreach programs designed to motivate and support students from disadvantaged backgrounds. TRiO includes six outreach and support programs targeted to serve and assist low-income, first-generation college students and students with disabilities in progressing through the academic pipeline from middle school to post-baccalaureate programs. Here is their contact info:https://windward.hawaii.edu/trio/

Basic Needs

Basic needs include food and housing, childcare, mental health, financial resources, and transportation. Student basic needs security is critical for ensuring strong academic performance, persistence and graduation, and overall student well-being. If you or someone you know is experiencing basic needs insecurity, please see the UH System Basic Needs website.

UH Alerts

The UH Alert emergency notification system alerts the university community in the event of a natural, health or civil emergency. The information you provide will only be used in the event of an emergency that impacts the health and safety of the UH community or the closure of whole campuses. It will not be shared with others or used for routine UH communications or announcements. To sign up, visit UH Alerts website for more information.

Financial Aid

If you are receiving financial aid and are contemplating not completing the course, BEFORE you withdraw, it is highly recommended that you contact the Financial Aid Office at 808-934-2712 or email them at wccfao@hawaii.edu to discuss the impact this decision may have on your financial aid eligibility.

Student Conduct Code

Windward Community College follows the University of Hawai‘i Code of Student Conduct which defines expected conduct for students and specifies those acts subject to University sanctions. Students should familiarize themselves with the Code of Student Conduct since, upon enrollment at Windward

Community College, the student has placed herself/himself under the policies and regulations of the University and its duly constituted bodies. The disciplinary authority is exercised through the Office of the Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs. Copies of the Student Conduct Code are available at the Office of the Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs or online.

Title IX - Sex Discrimination And Gender-Based Violence Resources

ASSIGNMENTS

Guidelines for all assignments can be downloaded at any time from Lamaku. Assignments must be submitted electronically via Lamaku and Google Drive.

Assignments include all major speeches, speech preparation outlines, and the PowerPoint. ONLY Microsoft Word or compatible word processing software (i.e., Microsoft Works, Open Office Writer) should be used to type up assignments that are uploaded for the instructor to view and evaluate.

It is MANDATORY that you keep a back-up copy of your assignments. If I do not receive a copy of your assignment, you will be required to provide me with another copy in an expedient and timely manner. You should retain a copy of all assignments until you receive your final course grade.

INSTRUCTIONAL COMPONENT

Make sure to read your weekly announcements for the instructional component for this course. Your weekly announcements will include the chapter overview, chapter lecture slides and key terms you need to know for your quizzes or notes relating to the assignment that is due for that week.

LATE SUBMISSIONS

No late work will be accepted.

GRADE APPEALS

To appeal a grade on an assignment, speech, or exam, you must do so by providing a written (typed) argument as to why you feel the grade is in error. All typed appeals must be submitted via e-mail within one week of receiving the grade.

"INCOMPLETE" AND "N" GRADES

The grade of "I" or "Incomplete" will be assigned ONLY in cases where a majority of the coursework has been completed and all but a single assignment or project remains to be submitted for credit. Arrangements for an "I" grade need to be made with the instructor well beforehand and prior to the deadline for submitting an "I" grade. Similarly, the grade of "N" or "No Grade" is reserved for extreme circumstances beyond one's reasonable control. These circumstances need to be communicated to the instructor as early as possible and with the appropriate documentation or evidence of hardship. "N"grades will NOT be given in place of a failing grade for the course. Ex post facto claims of hardship (i.e., claims of personal hardship after the fact, or once the semester is over or nearly over) will not be considered for the "N" grade.

STUDENT RESPONSIBILITIES AND REQUIRED COURSE ASSIGNMENTS

MAJOR SPEECH PRESENTATIONS

Three major speech presentations are required in this course: the Introductory Speech, the Informative Speech, and the Persuasive Speech. Students must deliver each speech extemporaneously. This means that the speech is delivered conversationally with minimal use of 4 x 6 index cards as speaker notes. Speakers must also present the speech as if he or she were speaking before a live audience. This means that you may NOT use any type of teleprompter device (e.g., on-screen computer teleprompters, notes typed on your computer, flip charts hidden from the view of the camera for you to read off of, notes posted where you can see them but the audience cannot) to deliver your speech. Speaking from a teleprompter or visual cue aid produces marked differences in physical and vocal delivery. This type of delivery will result in a grade of no higher than 60% of the total points for the speech.

Speech videos must be uploaded in unedited or "raw" form. Video editing to correct for errors or latencies in speech is strictly prohibited. Videos that have been edited before submission will receive a grade of zero. These guidelines have been put in place to ensure parity and integrity of the distance education Speech course with the face-to-face classroom course.

Each speech must be video-recorded in a quiet location and uploaded to Google Drive by the due date. It is highly recommended that you do not procrastinate until the last minute when uploading your speech videos. As with uploading any video to the web, uploads may fail before they upload successfully.

SPEECH OUTLINES

A written version of your speech must be submitted with each major speech. This written version must be written in complete sentences and must be the full version of your speech as you intend to speak it. While you will not read directly from your written outline, these outlines are essential for you to carefully think through and develop a clear logic for your ideas before you actually present them to your audience. Writing a speech outline beforehand aids in logic development, ease of expression, and helps build confidence. Templates will be provided on Lamaku to aid you in writing your own original speech preparation outlines. Speech outlines must be uploaded to Lamaku by the due date using the "Assignments" link. After each speech, a reflection paper will be due. The reflection paper must include, what you think you did well on, what you think you did not do well on, and what you can do to improve for your future speeches.

CHAPTER QUIZZES

The chapter quizzes will be administered on Lamaku. Quizzes are comprised of multiple-choice, True/False, and essay questions. The quizzes will cover content from the assigned readings. Chapter quizzes will be worth 10 points each. You will have access to your textbook and notes while taking the quizzes. However, it is important to note that quizzes will be timed so you will not have an inordinate amount of time to search for the answers in your textbook or notes. It is highly recommended that you keep up with your readings throughout the semester so that you need not rely on your textbook when taking the exams.

GRADING SCALE

There are 1000 total possible points that may be earned in this course. Because this class fulfills the Speech requirement for graduation, students who do not complete all three major speech assignments will not receive a passing grade (i.e., D or higher) for the course. Grades will be assigned on the following basis: 900-1000 (90%-100%) A; 800-899 (80%-89%) B; 700-799 (70%-79%) C; 600-699 (60%-69%) D; 0-599 (59% and below) F.

DISABILITY SUPPORT SERVICES. If you are a student with a documented disability and have not voluntarily disclosed the nature of your disability to Kapi‘olani Community College so that we may coordinate the accommodations you need, you are invited to contact the Disability Support Services Office (DSSO) in ‘Ilima 107, at (808)734-9552, or email kapdss@hawaii.edu for assistance.

For students whose primary disability is Deaf or hard of hearing, contact the Deaf Center at (808) 734-9210 (V) or (808) 447-3145 / (808) 447-3141 (videophone), or email kapdeaf1@hawaii.edu.

STUDENT PARTICIPATION VERIFICATION. Students are expected to attend and participate in the courses for which they are registered. The University of Hawai’i is required, by federal regulation, to verify the participation of students in their classes. According to Executive Policy 7.209, students who fail to establish attendance by the late registration period will be administratively dropped from their class. Students may also be dropped from other classes that are dependent on the class where they failed to establish attendance (i.e., a co-requisite or future class where the dropped class meets the prerequisite requirement). More information such as important dates, tutorials and frequently asked questions can be found here.

STUDENT CONDUCT. The Office of the Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs assists students, faculty and staff with the conduct code and policy enforcement at Kapi‘olani Community College (CC) and its sponsored activities. Our goal is to foster a supportive environment where you are accountable for your behavior and its impact on your educational community.

The Student Conduct Code outlines behavior that conflicts with our community standards and can be found at: www.kapiolani.hawaii.edu/regulations-policies-and-data/student-conduct-code/

My expectation is that you understand and abide by these agreements as a student in this course, including refraining from: cheating, plagiarism, forgery of documents, providing false information, and other acts of dishonesty. Both in person and online behavior that threatens or endangers the health or safety of any person, or disrupts teaching and learning, may result in a disciplinary process and sanctions. As a reminder, smoking of any kind, including electronic smoking and vaping devices, is prohibited on campus property.

Students that have a concern about violations of the Student Conduct Code may contact the Office of the Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs at (808) 734-9522 or email kapvcsa@hawaii.edu. You may also report an incident at http://bit.ly/kapcc_reporting. Although your contact information is requested, you may select to remain anonymous.

MASK GUIDANCE. Wearing a mask is not mandatory; however, it is highly recommended that people wear masks indoors and around people during crowded events, especially for those who are not vaccinated or who are immunocompromised.

Masks may continue to be required in indoor spaces based on recommendations by medical and public health experts. If there are signs requesting masks posted for a space or office, please honor those signs. You may request a mask at the Office of the Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs in ʻIlima 205, or at the Office of Student Life in ʻIliahi 126.

Masking is required for those who have been exposed to someone with COVID-19 or has contracted the virus. They must wear a mask for the duration of the 10-day isolation period. An infected person may return on day 6 if their symptoms are substantially improved and they have not had any fever in the preceding 24 hours, wearing a mask.

Please respect an individual's choice to wear a mask. For more info, visit https://www.hawaii.edu/covid19/.
