Windward Community College offers innovative programs in the arts and sciences and opportunities to gain knowledge and understanding of Hawai‘i and its unique heritage. With a special commitment to support the access and educational needs of Native Hawaiians, we provide the Ko‘olau region of O‘ahu and beyond with liberal arts, career and lifelong learning in a supportive and challenging environment – inspiring students to excellence.

‘Āina

Windward Community College is located in the ahupua‘a of Kāne‘ohe and He‘e‘ia in the moku of Ko‘olaupoko on the island of O‘ahu. Both ahupua‘a are directly connected to the mo‘o ‘ōlelo of Pāpa and Wākea, who are seen as the ancestors of the Hawaiian nation. The campus sits beneath the pu‘u of Keahiakahoe, which is also connected to many mo‘o ‘ōlelo of this ‘āina. Because wind names and rain names are associated with specific ‘āina, the rain name of Kāne‘ohe is known as the ‘Āpuakea and the rain name of He‘e‘ia is the Ulumano.

Instructor Information

About Your Instructor

Aloha kākou! My name is Christine Walters and I am a third generation British American who was born and raised in Ojibwe lands near what is today known as the Michigan/Canada border. My proudest accomplishment is that I am the first in my family to become a college graduate: it took me five years to earn my mathematics AA degree at community college while I worked three jobs (60+ hours a week) and attended school part time. Eventually, I earned my BA in Religious Studies from the University of South Florida and a MA in Asian Religions from the University of Hawai'i at Mānoa, where I specialized in Buddhism. I started to pursue a PhD in South Asian religions, with a focus on South Indian Hinduism and Sri Lankan Buddhism, but I left the program in 2011 after only attending the program for a year in order to return to O'ahu and start teaching full time at Leeward Community College in 2011. I was hired by Windward Community College in the Fall of 2025 and feel ha'aha'a to be a part of the community here. Off campus, my hobbies include reading, hiking, and gardening. I read a lot of books about lā'au lapa'au in my free time. In case it isn't already obvious, I'll point out that I am quite the nerd: I am obsessed with rewatching my favorite films and recently watched the anime Your Name about ten times! I have an Aussiedor fur baby named Pualena who loves to hike and I'm married to a local Filipino guy from Pearl City who has two adult children and an addiction to the ocean.

Revised December 30 2025

Work will be graded within a week of submission and the Grades tool will be used to provide personalized feedback.
- Q&A: I will check and provide answers to student posts on the course Q&A in Lamakū Discussions Monday through Thursday, 9 AM to 5 PM.
